

Here we go again

WYCOMBE Wanderers brought memories of their epic F.A. Cup clashes with Bedford in 1966 flooding back last night (Monday) when they recovered twice to draw their first round replay 2-2 at Bedford.

In '66, the two clubs fought out four games in round one with the scores going 1-1, 3-3 and 1-1 before the Eagles finally ran out winners 3-2 in the third replay. Over 30,000 fans watched the matches.

And it looks as though history is going to repeat itself after Wanderers pulled off a tremendous second half come back in last night's replay. They were two goals down after 30 minutes but second half goals from John Delaney and Tony Horseman made it 2-2 and there was no further scoring in extra time.

Wycombe had a bit of luck afterwards when they won the toss to decide the venue of the second replay. It will now be at Loakes Park on Monday.
